The board of directors shall have the authority to issue bonds, debentures, or other obligations of a corporation from time to time for any objects or purposes of the corporation, and to secure them by mortgage, deed of trust, or pledge of any or all of the real and personal property, rights, privileges, and franchises of the corporation wheresoever situated, acquired, and to be acquired, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of such obligations in any manner and such terms as the board of directors may deem proper.

The corporation shall have the power to purchase, receive, redeem, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise use and deal in any with its own shares of stock.

VIII.

- A. Power to indemnify-third party actions. The corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than any action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against expenses including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonable believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with the respect to any criminal action or proceeding , had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- B. Power to indemnify-actions brought in the right of the corporation. The corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust of other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner reasonable believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence of misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application, that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonable entitled to be indemnified for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

- C. Savings clause. The indemnification provided by this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any of the rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of share holders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators as such as person.
- D. Insurance. The corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section.

IX.

In addition to the powers and authority granted to the directors in these articles of incorporation, and in addition to the powers and authority expressing conferred upon them by statute, the board of directors of the corporation shall have additional powers and authority not inconsistent with law as may be set forth in the bylaws.

X.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, add to, or repeal any provision contained in these articles of incorporation in the manner consistent with law and in conformity with the provisions set forth in the bylaws.
