SECOND

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation.

THIRD

The period of its duration is perpetual.

FOURTH

The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, but without limitation, to prevent homelessness through education, mediation and referrals.

In furtherance of the above purposes, but not by way of limitation, the corporation is empowered to:

- A. Engage in any activity incidental or related to the attainment of the purposes of this corporation;
- B. Exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho upon nonprofit corporations.

FIFTH

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Fourth hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

SIXTH

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, in such manner and to such organization or organizations which so qualify as the board of directors so determine. Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by the court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

SEVENTH

The corporation shall not have members.

EIGHTH
