ARTICLE 8 ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

The following language relates to the Corporation's tax-exempt status and is not a statement of purposes or powers. Consequently, this language does not alter or abrogate the Corporation's purpose or power under ARTICLE 2.

The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth in ARTICLE 2 hereof within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

The property of this Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes in Article II hereof and no part of the net income or assets of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, hiring and firing of staff, selection of volunteers and vendors, and provision of services. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, clients, volunteers, subcontractors, vendors, and clients.

ARTICLE 9 DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE 10 COMPLIANCE WITH INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

Notwithstanding any other law, during any period(s) that the Corporation is deemed to be a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, it shall distribute its income for each taxable year (and principal, if necessary) at the time and in a manner so as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the Corporation shall not:

- (a) Engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (b) Retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (c) Make any taxable expenditures in a manner that subjects the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (d) Make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE 11 DURATION

The duration of the Corporation shall continue until the date upon which the Corporation will be dissolved.

Signature page follows.

In witness whereof, the incorporator(s) hereby execute these Articles of Incorporation.
