ARTICLE X - RELIANCE UPON OTHERS

A director shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the books of account of the corporation or statements prepared by any of its officials as to the value and amount of assets, liabilities or net profits of the corporation or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of surplus or other funds from which dividends might properly be declared and paid.

No person shall be liable to the corporation for any loss or damage suffered by it on account of any action taken or omitted to be taken by him as a director or officer of the corporation in good faith if such person (a) exercised or used the same degree of care and skill as a prudent man would have exercised or used under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs; or (b) took or omitted to take such action in reliance upon advice of counsel for the corporation or upon statements made or information furnished by officers or employees of the corporation which he had reasonable grounds to believe or upon a financial statement of the corporation prepared by an officer or employee of the corporation in charge of its accounts or certified by a public accountant or firm of public accountants.

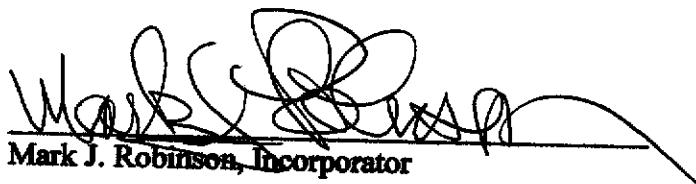

ARTICLE XI - CONTRACTS WITH INTERESTED DIRECTORS, DISCLOSURE AND VOTING

A director of the corporation shall not in the absence of fraud be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation either as a vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor in the absence of fraud shall, insofar as permitted by the Act or any other applicable statute, any transaction or contract of the corporation be void or voidable or affected by reason of the fact that any director or any firm of which a director is a member or any corporation of which any director is an officer, director or stockholder, is in any way interested in such transaction or contract provided that at the meeting of the board of directors or of a committee thereof having authority in the premises to authorize or confirm such contract or transactions, the interest of such director, firm or corporation is disclosed or made known and there shall be present a quorum of the board of directors or of the directors constituting such committee and such quorum, which majority shall consist of directors not so interested or connected. Nor shall any director be liable to account to the corporation for any profit realized by him from or through any such transaction or contract of the corporation, ratified or approved as herein provided, by reason of the fact that he or any firm of which he is a member, or any corporation of which he is a stockholder, director, or officer, was interested in such transaction or contract.

Directors so interested may be counted when present at meetings of the board of directors or of such committee for the purpose of determining the existence of a quorum. Each and every person who is or may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from those contracting with the corporation in which he may be in any way interested. Any contract, transaction or act of the corporation or of the board of directors or of any committee which shall be ratified by a majority in interest of a quorum of the stockholders having voting power, shall be as valid and as binding as though ratified by each and every stockholder of the corporation, but this shall not be constituted as requiring the submission of any contract to the stockholders for approval.

DATED this 28 day of May, 2010.

Mark J. Robinson, Incorporator
