ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
OF
RIGHT TO LIFE OF IDAHO INC. SECRETARY OF STATE

Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 30-326 and 30-327 of the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, the the following Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Right to Life of Idaho, Inc. were adopted by a majority of the members of the corporation present at a meeting properly called and held on November 12, 1983, at which a quorum was present.

FIRST: Article Fourth is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

FOURTH: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

To engage in educational and charitable activities and projects or purposes, including specifically but not in limitation of the foregoing.

1. To improve and further personal and social responsibility for human life.
2. To foster and increase protection of the right of life of mother and child.
3. To inform the public on abortions and related subjects.
4. To foster high standards of medical care in the State of Idaho.
5. To promote and encourage assistance in the care and rearing of children with birth defects.
6. To promote enlightened care and assistance to mother and child in difficult, unwanted and illegitimate pregnancies.
7. to aid and assist individuals, corporations, associations or institutions now or hereafter engaged in further any one or more of the aims set forth herein and do such other things as may be necessary or proper to carry out any of the foregoing aims of the Corporation.

8. To receive, manage and use any property, real or personal, acquired by the Corporation by gift, bequest, purchase, or otherwise for the purposes and objects of the Corporation, provided, however, that no part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation to effect one or more of its purposes).

SECOND: Article Eighth is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

EIGHTH: Subject to the provisions of Article Seventeenth of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under § 501 (c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now in force or as may afterwards be amended.

THIRD: Article Ninth of the Articles of Incorporation is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

NINTH: In no event shall any income or assets of this corporation be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer of this corporation, either directly, or indirectly, other than as bona fide expenses in carrying out the directions and authorities of the Board of Directors and officers hereof and carrying out the purposes of the Corporation. In the event of the termination, liquidation or dissolution of this corporation for any reason, all of the assets thereof, except those assets of the Educational Fund, shall after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to such organizations as such shall qualify under Sections 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended as the Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote thereon may elect.

FOURTH: The Articles of Incorporation are amended to add an Article to read as follows:

SEVENTEENTH: There shall be a fund, separate and apart from the other funds of the corporation known as the Right to Life of Idaho Educational Trust Fund. ("Education Fund"). The Education Fund in carrying out its purposes, shall have all powers granted by the law to a corporation formed under the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended, and shall also have express power:

A. To engage in educational, charitable or scientific activities, projects or purposes and for the purpose of prevention of cruelty to children, including specifically, but not limited to the following:

a. To improve and further personal and social awareness and responsibility for human life, particularly such vulnerable and disadvantaged individuals and classes as the mentally retarded, handicapped, aged, and children before as well as after birth;

b. To educate the public on abortion, human experimentation, genetic engineering, euthanasia, informed consent and related matters within the scope of bio-ethics;

c. To foster high standards of medical care in the State of Idaho;

d. To instruct and train interested citizens in effective communications, organizational development and the dynamics of social movements;

e. To promote and encourage research and education on the prevention of birth defects and mental retardation;

f. To promote enlightened care and assistance for pregnant women, children, and handicapped, mentally retarded and aged persons who have special needs;

g. To cause to be published and distributed treatises, articles, addresses, reports, books and other publications on any or all subjects related to those above;

h. To cause to be produced and distributed films, recordings, displays and other audio and visual materials on any or all subjects related to those above.

B. To either directly or indirectly do all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, suitable, desirable, or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any of the foregoing purposes.

C. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes, to accept, receive, hold, invest, reinvest, manage and administer gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds, and property of any sort or nature, without limitation as to amount or value; to use, employ, apply, expend or disburse, by donation or otherwise, the income and principal thereof, exclusively for the express purposes of this Education Fund.

D. No part of the activities of this Education Fund shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall the Education Fund participate or intervene in political campaigns on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office; nor shall it engage in any activities which are unlawful under the laws of the United States of America, or any state where such activities are carried on; nor shall it engage in any transaction defined at the time as "prohibited" under the Internal Revenue laws of the United States of America.

E. This Education Fund shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit. Neither the whole nor any part or portion of the assets or income of this Education Fund shall be used for objects or purposes which are not exclusively educational or charitable under the laws of both the United States of America and the State of Idaho.

F. No compensation or payment shall ever be made or paid to any officer, director or organizer of this Education Fund, except as a reasonable allowance for actual expenditures made on behalf of this Education Fund or for services actually rendered to this Education Fund. Neither the whole nor any part or portion of the assets or the income of this Education Fund shall ever be distributed to or divided among any such persons.

G. In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of this Education Fund, the net assets of this Education Fund shall be distributed only to a corporation or other organization or fund qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as it now is or may be amended) or to any federal, state or local governmental organization for use for public purposes."
