Preemptive Right of Existing Stockholders:

A. If the corporation, through its stockholders, authorizes the issue, by sale or exchange, of its capital stock for money or other consideration, each existing stockholder shall have a prior right to purchase on equal terms a proportionate share of the stock to be issued; provided, that this section shall not limit the right of the corporation acting through the Board of Directors to declare a stock dividend as provided by law.

B. The phrase "existing stockholder" describes a stockholder holding one or more shares of the common stock of the corporation registered in his name in the stock journal of the corporation at the time the stockholders authorize an issue of stock.

C. An existing stockholder's proportionate share shall be determined by the ratio that his shares bear to the total shares issued and outstanding. Except as otherwise provided, a stockholder who desires to sell or transfer his shares of stock must first offer them for sale to the corporation, and then to the existing shareholders on a pro rata basis it being the intention hereof to give first the corporation and then the existing shareholders a preference in the purchase of them, and any attempted sale in violation of this section is null and void.

B. A stockholder desiring to sell or transfer his stock to any person other than the corporation shall file notice in writing of his intention with the Secretary of the corporation, stating the identity of the proposed purchaser or transferee and the terms of sale or transfer. The three appraisers so selected shall within twenty (20) days after the selection of the third appraiser, appraise such share or shares proposed to be sold, transferred, or foreclosed and the majority of them shall determine their value as of the time of such appraisal and shall forthwith give written notice of their determination to both parties.

The appraisal shall take place at the general administrative office of the corporation and the appraisers shall notify both parties in writing of the time when the appraisal will be made; each party shall pay the expenses and fees of the appraiser selected by him or it and one-half of the expenses and fees of the third appraiser.

The Board of Directors, by majority of the directors excluding any director who is also a selling stockholder, shall have the option for twenty (20) days after receipt by the corporation of written notice of the determination of the appraisers, of purchasing the share or shares for the corporation at the appraised value.
