PURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is organized and will be operated are as follows:

A. To offer short-term access to the internet, accompany, and support to qualified organizations, such as school districts, public libraries, and other non-profit entities. Short-term shall be deemed to mean one (1) year. Recipients of services provided by Community Internet Services may apply for access to the internet, accompany, and support; but, in no event, shall Community Internet Services enter into an agreement in excess of one (1) year. In an effort to maximize the user's benefit of the internet, the corporation will also provide access to personnel who have expertise in internet usage.

B. Charitable, religious, educational, or scientific within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt under Section 501(c)(3).

C. To exercise all powers granted by law necessary and proper to carry out the foregoing purposes, including, but not limited to, the power to accept donations of money, property, whether real or personal, or any other things of value. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the corporation to carry on any business for profit, to exercise any power, or to do any act that a corporation formed under the ACT, or any amendment thereto or substitute therefore, may not at that time lawfully carry on or do.

VI.

LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings or the assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions and furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article V hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be for the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation, exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

VII.

NO MEMBERS

The Corporation shall not have any members.

VIII.
