ARTICLE V

Trusts and Trust Funds

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article IV, any donor or testator may direct that his or her gift shall be held in such charitable trusts as may be specifically designated by said donor or testator and in such case his or her intentions shall be carried out by The University of Idaho Foundation, Inc. (hereinafter "Foundation"). Donors or testators may give a principal sum to the Foundation for the benefit of said Foundation, and provide that the income thereof shall be payable to the donor during his or her life, or that it shall be paid to a beneficiary or beneficiaries named by him or by her for life, or for some other period of time, and that after the termination of the estate or estates so provided, the income or principal shall be disbursed as part of the unrestricted income or principal of said Foundation in accordance with Article IV or for such charitable purposes as the donor or testator may specify in accordance with this Article V.

If the members of the Foundation by the vote of ninety percent (90%) of the members shall at any time declare that the purposes of any gift made pursuant to this Article V have become (1) unnecessary, undesirable, impracticable, or impossible of fulfillment, or (2) if any beneficiary to which the income or principal of any gift shall be provided to be paid shall have become nonexistent or shall have ceased its activities, or (3) if for any other reasons the application or applications provided by the said donor or testator shall have become impossible, impracticable, unnecessary, or undesirable, the Foundation shall apply such gift to the purposes set forth in Article IV. The Foundation may accept appointments by any court of competent jurisdiction as trustee to hold any fund or funds under the terms of these articles.

Commingleing of Funds

In the absence of any provisions expressing the intention of the donor or testator to the contrary, the Foundation shall be authorized to mingle any property given to it under the terms hereof with other property given to it under the terms hereof without obligation to retain any gift as a separate fund, but any donor or testator may direct that his or her gift be held as a separate fund and may, if he or she so desires, designate such fund as a memorial fund in memory of a particular person or event, and in such case the said fund shall be maintained as a separate fund forming a part of the said Foundation, under such name, if any, as may be properly designated therefor. The Foundation shall in any event be authorized to hold as a separate fund any gift which, in the discretion of the Foundation shall require segregation in order to carry out any specific provision expressed by the donor or testator, or which shall require such segregation or any other reason deemed sufficient by the Foundation.

Subject to any written agreement with the donor or testator to the contrary, if any fund, the income of which is directed by the donor or testator to be paid to any donor or other beneficiary, is commingled, the Foundation shall make available to pay to such donor or other beneficiary as income on such fund the average rate of return on such commingled funds.

If, at any time after such mingling of funds shall have taken place, it should thereafter for any reason be deemed by the foundation as desirable or necessary to separate any fund or funds, each fund so separated shall be considered to be that proportion of the value at the date of separation of the principal or income of the combined funds as the value at the date of gift of such fund so separated shall bear to the total value of such combined funds at said last mentioned date plus any subsequent gifts valued as of the date thereof.
