ARTICLE FIVE PURPOSES

The corporation is not for profit and is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes for the use and benefit of Nampa Christian Schools, Inc., an Idaho nonprofit corporation, located in Nampa, Idaho (hereinafter "Nampa Christian Schools"), or such institution as shall succeed to the properties and functions of Nampa Christian Schools, Inc. and which qualifies as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) and is excepted from private foundation status under section 509(a)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) and in connection therewith shall have the power and authority:

1. To provide funds to Nampa Christian Schools, to be used to provide grants-in-aid, scholarships, and fellowships to students and faculty attending or on staff at Nampa Christian Schools; to provide capital improvements; and, to provide funds to Nampa Christian Schools to assist in meeting the basic institutional purpose and mission of the development of Christian character within the philosophy and framework of genuine scholarship;

2. To procure funds, properties, and assets of all kinds and types through the soliciting, receiving, and accepting of gifts, transfers, conveyances, assignments, devises, and bequests of all kinds and types from individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, and foundations;

3. To take by will or by gift, in trust or absolutely, cash or property, subject to any terms, conditions, or limitations which may be contained in the instrument by which such cash or property is acquired;

4. To manage, invest, and administer the assets of the corporation;

5. To purchase, exchange, lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, improve, maintain, manage, develop, operate, let as lessor, sell, convey, or mortgage, either alone or in conjunction with others, real and personal property of every kind, character, and description whatsoever and wheresoever situated and any interest therein; and

6. To make Bylaws not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Idaho for the administration of the business and interests of such corporation; provided, however, that such by-laws must be consistent with the provisions of Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(3).

The foregoing shall be construed both as objects and powers, and the enumeration thereof shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers conferred on this corporation by the laws of the State of Idaho. The said corporation shall have all the powers and authority necessary to accomplish the foregoing purposes and objectives; provided, however, that such powers shall be consistent with the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE SIX NO BENEFITS TO MEMBERS

This corporation does not afford pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise, to its members.

ARTICLE SEVEN NO STOCK

This Corporation shall have no authority to issue capital stock.

ARTICLE EIGHT AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES AND BYLAWS

These Articles of Incorporation may be altered, amended or replaced by the members at any regular or special meeting, as provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation. The Bylaws of the Corporation may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, as provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE NINE CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

This Corporation shall have members who shall have such rights as are provided in the Act, are consistent with the Bylaws, and are consistent with the management authority that these Articles and the Bylaws grant the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

The conditions for membership in this Corporation shall be stated in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

The members of the Corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the Corporation.

ARTICLE TEN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than seven (7) and not more than fifteen (15) individuals, each of whom, at all times, shall be a member of the Corporation. Other than the Directors constituting the initial Board of Directors, who are designated in these Articles, the Directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the term provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

exclusive objects and purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation as deemed advisable by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN LIMITATION ON CORPORATE ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles or the Bylaws:

(1) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Four hereof.

(2) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities which characterize it as an "action" organization as defined in section 501(c)(3) and shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law).

(3) All income of the Corporation for each taxable year (for federal income tax purposes) shall be distributed at such time and in such manner so as not to subject the Corporation to federal tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law).

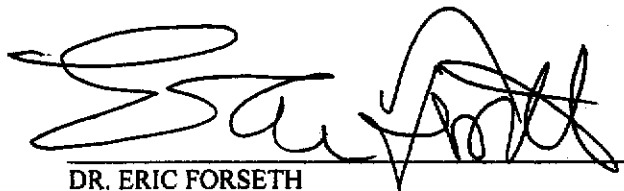

(4) The Corporation created hereby shall not engage in any act of self-dealing (as defined in section 4841(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law); retain any excess business holding as defined in section 4942(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law); make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law); or make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law).

ARTICLE FOURTEEN DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all the assets of the Corporation exclusively to Nampa Christian Schools, of Nampa, Idaho, or to such institution as shall succeed to the properties and functions of Nampa Christian Schools, of Nampa Idaho, or if no such institution exists, then to another entity engaged primarily in the pursuit of genuine Christian education provided any such recipient then qualifies as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law); otherwise, such assets shall be distributed exclusively to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the incorporator, have signed duplicate originals of these Articles of Incorporation of NAMP A CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS FOUNDATION, INC., this 12^m day of June, 2009.
